EDMONTON 7, ALBERTA

JULY 22, 1971

Dr. McCoy

APPOINTMENT

ERNEST EDWARD MCCOY has been appointed chairman of the Department of Paediatrics. The appointment, effective July 1, 1971, was announced by the Board of Governors of the University.

Dr. McCoy succeeds J. K. MARTIN, who has accepted a position in hospital administration on Vancouver Island, British Columbia.

Born in Victoria, British Columbia, Dr. McCoy attended The University of Alberta, receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in 1947 and his Doctor of Medicine in 1949. He served his internship in Calgary and his residency training in paediatrics at St. Louis Children's Hospital, St. Louis, Missouri.

Dr. McCoy was research fellow at the Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis and held positions in paediatrics at the University of British Columbia, Vanderbilt University, the University of Missouri, and the University of Virginia. In January, 1970, he accepted the positions of Professor of Paediatric Research at The University of Alberta and Director of the University's Centre for the Study of Mental Retardation.

A Markle Scholar in Medical Science from 1959 to 1964, Dr. McCoy was awarded a research career developmental award, United States Public Health Service, in 1964. His present work includes metabolic studies of Down's syndrome, screening for inborn errors in purine metabolism, and the metabolism of Vitamin B6.

PSYCHOLOGY FILM SHOWN

A movie entitled "Autokinesis: Self-Induced Movement" was completed last year by THOMAS M. NELSON, Professor and Chairman of Psychology, and PAUL O. MC GAFFEY, Sessional Lecturer in Psychology. It describes the complex human perceptual construction known as autokinetic (self induced) movement, and was produced for students of the behavioral sciences and professional personnel working with alcoholics. This summer it has been shown at the Canadian Psychological Association meeting in St. John's, Newfoundland, and the Canadian Educational Communications conference in Edmonton. It has been accepted for showing at the American Psychological Association meeting this September in Washington, D.C.

GUIDE TO SCHOLARLY PUBLISHING

The Humanities Research Council and the Social Science Council of Canada administer a publications program which offers aid towards the publication of scholarly works in these fields. Manuscripts may be submitted by publishers or by authors who have not yet found a publisher. In response to an increasing number of requests for information about every facet of scholarly publishing in this country, the Councils have issued A Guide to Scholarly Publishing in Canada. It has been compiled from the replies to a questionnaire sent out to all publishers in Canada concerned with scholarly books.

The guide sets out publishers' requirements for the preparation and submission of manuscripts, and gives information on copyright and permissions. Various publishers

ART EXHIBITION

The current exhibition at the University Art Gallery, entitled "5," is by the first graduate student class in the Department of Art and Design. The graduate program began in the fall of 1970 and leads to a master's degree in Visual Arts. A variety of work is being shown including printmaking, painting, sculpture, mixed media, and process images.

The Gallery, located in Ring House No. 1, will be open from 12 noon to 5 p.m., Monday to Friday, for the duration of the exhibition, which ends on August 20. Admission is free.

CREATIVE DANCE FOR CHILDREN

Because of the high demand for children's activities during Summer Session, further classes in creative dance will be held for children in grades 3 through 6 on July 29, August 5, and August 12, between 10 and 11 a.m. The classes will be taught by RACHEL KINNERSLEY, dance specialist, and be observed by Summer Session students. For further information call MRS. SCHULLER at 432-5635. at 432-5635.
